

Hyperglycaemia management for adults with type 2 diabetes (excluding pregnant patients) position statement

Summary

NHS South West London has approved the use of 'Pan-London hyperglycaemia guideline for type 2 diabetes'. The guideline is for the hyperglycaemia management for adults with type 2 diabetes (excluding pregnant patients) – urgent treatment decision tree for primary care' in SWL. The Pan-London hyperglycaemia guideline is located under key documents on the London Diabetes Clinical Network webpage.

Guidance for clinicians

This document can be used to support decision-making in primary care if an adult patient presents with signs and symptoms of hyperglycaemia.

Document History

Version: V 1.1

Author: London Diabetes Clinical Network

Approved by: Integrated medicines optimisation committee (IMOC)

Approval date: 20th December 2023

Review Date: 2 years from approval date or sooner where appropriate.